

SOUND BATHS

A sound bath is an unforgettable experience. The vibration of ancient and magical instruments will transport you to a state of harmony and consciousness that will not leave you indifferent.

In our concerts we use instruments of all types, allowing the participants to experience multiple and very diverse sensations.

In any case, it is a relaxing experience that can also cause changes internally, and even contribute to your personal growth and healing process.

Discover with us the power of vibration.

DATES AND PRICES

Contact us to find out the dates of each sound bath, we normally do them approximately every month and a half.

RETREATS and MICRO-RETREATS

Our retreats are focused on connecting with your true essence, on finding that place of peace and harmony, not only outside, in full contact with nature, but also inside.

In each retreat we propose activities focused on relaxation, healing and also enjoyment.

Allow yourself to know this experience, in coexistence with other people, enriching and nourishing yourself from Mother Earth.

In addition to the retreats, which usually last 4-6 days, we also do one-day excursions and micro-retreats in which we take a bath of nature without having to travel far, sharing beautiful experiences that heal us and charge us with energy. .
